Hidden Gems of the City of London

Thursday July 10th, 6:30pm

You are invited to join us on a guided walk round the heart of our ancient capital city. We will visit famous landmarks as well as exploring some less well known courtyards and alleyways. Discover our diverse architectural heritage and learn more about the long and turbulent history of London.

Our guide will be Sue King, AKS member and qualified City of London Guide.

We will meet at St Paul's underground station.

The walk will last approximately 1½ hours and our final destination will be 'The Counting House' public house near Monument and Bank underground stations. Real ale and traditional pub food are available at this rather unusual venue.

Cost: £5 for AKS members and their families and guests.

The walk will be limited to around 20 people so book early to avoid disappointment.
